International Provisional Representative of the FREE TERRITORY OF TRIESTE

Rappresentanza Internazionale Provvisoria del Territorio Libero di Trieste
Začasno Mednarodno Predstavnistvo Svobodnega Tržaškega Ozemlja
Provisorische Internationale Vertretung des Freien Territoriums Triest

Press Conference of 26 October 2015

This second press conference of the International Provisional Representative of the Free Territory of Trieste - I.P.R. F.T.T. is held to make public the names of the directors of the Secretariat General and of the Departments of the Representative, the role of the first delegates abroad and the opening of the collection of delegation documents of the citizens and enterprises of both the Free Territory and all other States.

The establishment of the I.P.R. F.T.T. coincides with the anniversary of the establishment of the Free Territory of Trieste under its current provisional regime of government, in compliance with the Treaty of Peace of Paris of 10 February 1947. This press conference is held on 26 October, coinciding with the date of the beginning of the temporary civil administration entrusted to the responsibility of the Italian Government.

The International Provisional Representative of the Free Territory of Trieste is established as a political-diplomatic mission that acts upon delegation of subjects of private, public and international law, holding rights and legitimate interests relating to the Free Territory of Trieste and to its international Free Port, which are not represented by the provisional Italian Government.

In particular, it is commercial, manufacturing, fiscal, financial, bank and insurance-related rights relating to the Free Territory of Trieste and to its international Free Port.

The International Representative decided that starting with today, two of the three names of the Directors of the General Secretariat who are in contact with the public are revealed, while for the moment the third name is protected under reservation, being this Director in charge of taking contact with enterprises and investors. Due to this, for the moment, also the names of the delegates who are already active for the same purpose in specific Countries and international Organizations remain reserved as well.

The Director of the General Secretariat and Department I (Foreign Affairs, Communication and Security) is Paolo G. Parovel. The Director of Department III (Civil, Political, Economic, Cultural and Environmental Rights) is Roberto Giurastante. For the moment, the name of the Director of Department II (Economy and Finances) remains reserved.

Delegates with economic roles are already active in the United States, in Austria, in the Czech Republic and in the United Nations, also, at the same time, through the suitable procedures, are taking place the announced 236 accreditation requests to States and international organizations.

Starting with today, the delegations to the International Representative are open for signature to all subjects entitled. The delegations of foreign citizens, enterprises, organizations and subjects of public and international law are collected by the Representative itself.

As for the general collection of the delegations of the citizens of the Free Territory, the Free Trieste Movement is entrusted to take care of it, and it has accepted to do it out both in its head office of Piazza della Borsa 7, Trieste, and with dedicated actions. The time and system for the collection will be announced soon.
